Mavum Continues Two-Year Expansion Plan
Indiana-based benefits, insurance and retirement firm adds staff

(INDIANAPOLIS, IN – January 20, 2009) Mavum (formerly TriplePoint Consulting) today announced the addition of Katrina Brown and Ami Fletcher to the Indianapolis team. The recent hiring follows Mavum’s twenty-four month growth plan to add 25 new positions by 2009. In 2008, Mavum hired ten full-time positions in Indiana.

Katrina Brown joins Mavum as a Benefit Consultant. Prior to joining Mavum, she worked at Benefit Associates, Inc. Brown, a Marion College alumnus, will be responsible for business development and designing benefits plans for clients.

Mavum has named Ami Fletcher as a Risk Management Consultant. In this role, Fletcher will advise churches, day care and veterinarian facilities on commercial insurance. Fletcher holds a Property Casualty License and serves the American Cancer Society and March of Dimes.

“The growth and momentum at Mavum is exciting. Katrina and Ami are dynamic individuals who are passionate about our innovative approach to benefits and insurance. The Indianapolis team eagerly welcomes them aboard,” said Rod Reasen II, President of Mavum.

Mavum is actively seeking qualified candidates for the benefits and risk management divisions. For more information on employment opportunities, visit www.Mavum.com or call (317) 913-3370.

About Mavum: Formerly known as TriplePoint Consulting, Mavum is one of Indiana’s leading benefit, risk management and retirement consulting firms. Through an industry unique analysis and consultative process, Mavum utilizes technology to design benefit plans and insurance that help companies become employers of choice and lower overall costs.

Mavum has been listed among the Top 10 Largest Indianapolis Area Employee Benefits Services Firms by the IBJ for the past six years. The company was a finalist for the 2006 Kelley School of Business Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards and for the 2008 Indiana Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year.
