Mavum Hires Operations Manager
Indiana-based benefits, insurance and retirement firm adds staff

(INDIANAPOLIS, IN – February 01, 2009) Mavum (formerly TriplePoint Consulting) today announced the hiring of Jim Burdick to the Indianapolis headquarters. The recent hiring follows Mavum’s twenty-four month growth plan to add 25 new positions by 2009. In 2008, Mavum hired ten full-time positions in Indiana.

Jim Burdick joins Mavum as Operations Manager. Prior to joining Mavum, he served as Vice President of Finance and Operations at Evangelical Baptist Missions. Burdick is a Bob Jones University graduate and is a Certified Training Consultant. At Mavum, Burdick will oversee daily administrative and office operations from the Indianapolis office.

“The Mavum team is thrilled to have Jim on board. His proven operational experience will help us better serve our clients. Jim is a dynamic individual that shares our company values of service, innovation and integrity,” said Rod Reasen II, President of Mavum.

Mavum is actively seeking qualified candidates for the benefits, risk management and retirement service divisions. For more information on employment opportunities, visit Mavum.com/career or call (317) 913-3370.

About Mavum: Formerly known as TriplePoint Consulting, Mavum is one of Indiana’s leading benefit, risk management and retirement consulting firms. Through an industry unique analysis and consultative process, Mavum utilizes technology to design benefit plans and insurance that help companies become employers of choice and lower overall costs.

Mavum has been listed among the Top 10 Largest Indianapolis Area Employee Benefits Services Firms by the IBJ for the past six years. The company was a finalist for the 2006 Kelley School of Business Entrepreneurial Spirit Awards and for the 2008 Indiana Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year.
